Elk Valley Track Club Code of Conduct

Participation and competition with Elk Valley Track Club is a privilege that carries with it certain responsibilities. As a member of EVTC, you are at all times representing both the club and its members, and setting an example for younger athletes. Furthermore at times when you travel to competition you may be seen as a representative for; your town, your province, and your country.

Competition

- Athletes will wear the provided EVTC kit at all competitions
- Unless consent is otherwise given, athletes will travel exclusively with the team for and during competitions
- Rules of the competition will be respected. There is to be no arguing with either officials or meet administrators, any concerns regarding a decision should be brought to the attention of the relevant EVTC coach or manager
- Common standards of sportsmanship are expected
- At all times the decisions of the relevant EVTC coach or manager shall be considered final
- An appropriate curfew will be set for all competitions
- There will be no consumption of alcohol or any illicit drug by any athlete, coach, manager or chaperone at any time while they are travelling for competition

Training

- It is each athlete's responsibility to come to each session fully prepared to complete the day's training. As such, alcohol will be considered off limits to all 'in season' athletes
- Athletes should be committed to building a positive training environment that focuses on encouragement and building teammates up. While a fun and lighthearted environment is supported, behaviour that crosses the line or is overtly negative will not be tolerated
- Athlete agrees to not publicly share training data on Strava, any other social media platform, or indeed anywhere online
